At the end of An Offer from a Gentleman, all I could think was "I hope that Posy gets her happily ever after". After all, she tried to be a good sister to Sophie for years. And, ultimately, stood up for her at the detriment of the possibilities of her own future.

An Offer from a Gentleman - The Second Epilogue by Julia ...

An Offer From a Gentleman: The 2nd Epilogue, p.1. The 1815 season is well under way, and while one would think that all talk would be of Wellington and Waterloo, in truth there is little change from the conversations of 1814, which centered around that most eternal of society topics—marriage. As usual, the matrimonial hopes among the debutante set center upon the Bridgerton family, most specifically the eldest of the available brothers, Benedict.
