Thinking we need meat for each meal is just basic as f*ck. We're chopping down rainforests to raise cattle and crops. If you think that's sustainable, home-skilllet, it's not. The abuse in these factories is horrendous at best. And it's time to take action, not sit back and rest. Their living conditions are filthy, they all live in fear.

Today I'm talking to my college best friend, Melanie Morgan. I met her freshman year when I was a raw vegan, and she tells the story of when we first met (and she thought I was nuts). And apparently, six years later, I also forced her to become paleo with me. I totally forgot that. In this episode we chat about mental health, my diets before The F*ck It Diet, and lots of other absurd things.
